

Intercultural Theology
June 5-6, 2015
For Immerse
Dr. Mark Naylor
Mark.naylor@twu.ca

1. Introduction
2. Definitions
  - “theology”
  - “culture”
  - “intercultural”
3. Theological roots of intercultural theology
  - faith-text-context triangle
  - Blind man and elephant
  - The threat of relativism
  - Mythos and Logos
  - Majority world terminology
  - “theological translatability”
4. Why is intercultural theology particularly important for us today?
5. Biblical expressions of intercultural theology
6. Hermeneutical assumptions that allow for intercultural theology
7. An historical perspective on intercultural theology
8. Characteristics of Majority world theologies
9. How does one evaluate the legitimacy of an intercultural theology?
10. How do I integrate intercultural theology in my ministry?
11. Reflections on the reading